80th Arroyo Grande Harvest Festival Scarecrow and Business Decorating Contest Fact Sheet for 2017

You can add to the excitement of the 80th Annual Arroyo Grande Harvest Festival by decorating your business and entering the Scarecrow Contest.

Background

Again this year the Kiwanis Club of Arroyo Grande Valley is chairing the popular Scarecrow Decorating Contest. Members of the community delight in seeing the theme of the event carried out throughout the City and make it a point to visit participating merchants.

Ribbons are awarded for the most outstanding entries and participants and winners are announced through local media, on the Harvest Festival website, etc.

Judging

Entries are judged on originality, adherence to the festival theme and quality of work. This year's theme is "Struttin' Our Stuff."

Deadline

The deadline for submitting your application and having your decorations in place is Saturday, September 2nd, 2017. Our judges will visit your business on Tuesday, September 19th between 10 am and 1 pm and winners will be announced the first day of the Harvest Festival (September 22th) during opening ceremonies.
